Brief Profile of the Organization

Dnyandeep Rashtriy Samajik Va Shaikshanik Vikas Sanstha is a registered non-profit organization established in 2004 and based in Karad, District Satara, Maharashtra. For the last 21 years, the organization has been working towards the social, educational, and economic development of women, children, youth, farmers, and marginalized communities across Satara, Sangli, Kolhapur, Pune, Raigad, Nandurbar, and Sindhudurg districts.

The organization works in the areas of Women Empowerment, Skill Development, Education, Health, Agriculture, Livelihood Promotion, Water Literacy, Sanitation & Hygiene, Child Protection, and Community Development. Dnyandeep has successfully implemented various government, CSR, and donor-supported projects, including Jal Jeevan Mission, Swachh Bharat Mission, Water Literacy Programs, Organic Farming Promotion, Women Leadership Development, and Vocational Skill Training Programs.

The organization operates government-recognized skill development centers, Hostels and has extensive experience in community mobilization, capacity building, and sustainable rural development. Dnyandeep collaborates with organizations such as AFARM, CORO India, NABARD, MCED, Americares, Suzlon Foundation and various government departments to create lasting social impact and improve the quality of life in rural communities.